

The Carpenter's Kids Program

Idifu—Christ Church, Riverdale and Mediator, Bronx First distribution—3 May 2008

Above: people start to head into the church after the CKids staff arrive at Idifu. Inside the church, Kids and guardians sing a song while they wait for the distribution to get underway.

Above: new Kids receiving their uniform, together with guardians, signing to show they have received the items (including soap), getting a bit of help with their new clothes and (right) all dressed!

Above: Kids sitting patiently with their new backpacks on, some of the boys looking smart, and putting on shoes and socks—some needing some help to get their socks on!.

Above: all the guardians and Carpenters' Kids wave a greeting to their link parish, below: the parish committee and the group disperses.

